

SOUTH RICHMOND

REV. THOMAS F. SEMMES
PREACHES FIRST SERMON

Well-Known Minister Becomes Rec- tor of Meade Memorial Epis- copal Church To-Day.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEF HELD

Negro, Accused of Stealing Machine From G. C. Cooke, Sent On to Grand Jury—Presbyterian Sun- day School Hold Big Rally.

Rev. Thomas F. Semmes, of Covington, Va., will assume charge of the rectorship of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church to-day. Rev. Semmes will preach his first sermon this morning at 10 o'clock, and will occupy the pulpit again at 8 o'clock to-night. Large congregations are expected to attend both services, as the new rector is well-known in the Southside.

Mr. Semmes was formerly rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church here, and has many friends in Richmond. He has been the first to call for him by the vestry of Meade Memorial Church, but on a second invitation about a month ago he decided to accept. The church has been without a rector since the resignation of Rev. F. Ernest Warren.

The Sunday school will be reorgan- ized this morning and other branches of church work will be pushed forward. Plans will also be made for in- creasing the building fund for a new church.

Sent to Grand Jury.

Leroy Robinson, colored, seventeen years old, was sent on to the grand jury by Justice Maurice yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II, on the charge of stealing the automobile of G. C. Cooke. The car was taken on Thursday afternoon while it was stand- ing in front of Mr. Cooke's store, 533 West Broad Street. Shortly after a re- port of the theft had been made, a policeman J. H. Lee arrested Robinson driving the machine on Hull Street. The negro made a dash for liberty at the door of the Third Police Station, and escaped after a chase of ten blocks. He was recaptured yesterday morn- ing in his home, 716 North Second Street.

To Hold Big Rally.

The three Presbyterian Sunday schools of South Richmond will unite in a celebration of rally day this morn- ing at 11 o'clock in Porter Street Pres- byterian Church. An interesting pro- gram has been prepared, and a large crowd is expected. Invitations having been issued in the form of telegrams. All departments of the schools will be represented—first, roll, beginners, pri- mary, junior, intermediate, senior, adult and home department. A. T. Nelson, the new Sunday school missionary of the East Hanover Presbytery, will deliver an illustrated talk, while special music will be rendered.

Rev. Wesley Baker, the pastor, will conduct the evening services. He will preach on "The Indignation of Jesus."

Smith-Becher.

Miss Thelma Augustus Belcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Belcher, became the bride of Walter Powell Smith at a quiet wedding solemnized yesterday in Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home to their many friends at 1707 Albany Avenue, after a bridal tour of several days.

Death of Mrs. Waymack.

Mrs. Fannie Waymack, widow of Charles W. Waymack, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock in the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. J. Henry, 3213 Lawson Street, Swansboro. The funeral services will be held at the home to- morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

To-Day in Southside Churches.

Rev. R. M. White, the pastor, will occupy his pulpit at both services to- day in Decatur Street Methodist Church. Daily day services will be held on next Sunday.

In response to the request for a uni- versal prayer service for peace, Rev. W. A. Cooper will preach to-night in Central Methodist Church on "The Eu- ropean War and Christian Civilization." He will also occupy the pulpit at the morning service.

Both services in Ashbury Methodist Church will be conducted by the pas- tor, Rev. J. R. Eggleston. He will preach this morning for "Peace," and to-night on "Our Biography," the Special Mission of the Church.

Rev. F. Wayne Long will preach this morning in Cowardin Avenue Christian Church on "Our Biography," and to- night on "The Strategy of a King."

Personal Mention.

In honor of Miss Vera Thomas, of Lynchburg, who is visiting here, Miss Jane Robertson entertained at cards last night at her home in Forest Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cox, of the Southside, have returned home from a bridal tour, on which they visited New York, Washington and other Northern points.

F. N. Jones and son, F. S. Jones, will leave shortly for New Mexico, where they will visit W. H. Jones.
